with interest and costs as provided therein, plus the costs of this proceeding, pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 13; and (c) awarding Petitioner such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper:

PARTIES

1. At all material times, Petitioner UML has been and is a corporation duly incorporated under the laws of the United Kingdom, with its principal place of business at Portland House 69 71, Wembley Hill Road, Middlesex, Wembley, United Kingdom. UML owns and operates a diversified fleet of vessels and provides shipping services of crude oil, clean products and dry bulk cargoes. UML is part of a network of companies constituting the Union Maritime Group.

2. At all material times, Respondent PDVSA has been and is the Venezuelan incorporated and state-owned oil company, with its principal place of business at Avenida Libertador con Calle El Empalme, Complejo MinPetroleo – PDVSA, La Campiña, Caracas, Venezuela. PDVSA wholly owns PDV Holding, Inc. (“PDVH”), a Delaware corporation which wholly owns CITGO Holding, Inc., which wholly owns CITGO Petroleum Corporation,³ the latter of whose shares this Court plans to auction by judicial procedure.

3. UML’s claim in the Arbitration against PDVSA arose out of outstanding sums totaling USD $2,374,352.49 due and payable under a charterparty dated July 21, 2016 (the “Charter”), pursuant to which UML agreed to let and PDVSA agreed to hire the M/T HARLEY for a period of about two years at a hire rate of USD $ 19,400.00 per day. Thereafter, on July 14, 2017, UML and PDVSA entered into Addendum No. 1 to the Charter, under which PDVSA

³ See Crystallex Int’l Corp. v. Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela, 333 F. Supp. 3d 380, 418 (D. Del. 2018), aff’d and remanded, 932 F.3d 126 (3d Cir. 2019).

granted UML an option to substitute the M/T HARLEY with the M/T THAYER, owned by P Energy Limited, another company in the Union Maritime Group.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

4. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over this Petition pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 203, which provides that the United States district courts have original subject matter jurisdiction over a proceeding governed by the Convention on the Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards of June 10, 1958 (the “New York Convention”), as implemented by the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1, et seq., and 9 U.S.C. § 201, et seq. This is a civil action seeking confirmation of an award rendered in an arbitration falling under the New York Convention.

5. This action also constitutes an admiralty and maritime claim within the meaning of Rule 9(h) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in that it involves a claim for breach of a maritime contract for the charter of a vessel, and this Court thus also has admiralty jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 1333.

6. Venue is proper in this District pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 204 because, save for the parties’ arbitration agreement, an action or proceeding with respect to the controversy between the parties could have been brought in this District.

7. Venue is also proper in this District pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) and (c).

FACTS

8. By Charter Party dated July 21, 2016, (the “Charter”), UML entered into a maritime contract for the charter of a vessel, the M/T HARLEY, which UML agreed to let, and PDVSA agreed to hire, for about two years at a daily hire rate of USD $ 19,400.00. (A true and correct copy of the Charter is annexed as Exhibit “C” to the accompanying Kraljevic Decl.).

9. On July 14, 2017, UML and PDVSA entered into Addendum No. 1 to the Charter, under which PDVSA granted UML an option to substitute the M/T HARLEY with the M/T THAYER – owned by P Energy Limited, another company in the Union Maritime Group – while the M/T HARLEY was due to go to drydock. There was, however, a period of overlap in which PDVSA had use of both vessels and UML, accordingly, charged hire for the use of both vessels.

10. On August 26, 2018, UML and PDVSA entered into Addendum No. 2 to the Charter under which both parties agreed to extend the Charter until November 15, 2018.

11. Clause 46(b) of the Charter states that any disputes between the parties are subject to London arbitration. Clause 46(a) of the Charter states that the Charter is governed by English Law.

12. In total, PDVSA incurred net charges of USD $17,866,397.60 under the Charter, of which it paid a total of USD $15,476,880.16. A balance of USD $2,374,352.49 is due and owing by PDVSA to UML.

13. Despite due demand by UML, PDVSA failed to pay the outstanding debt under the Charter. UML therefore appointed its Arbitrator on March 15, 2019. PDVSA appointed attorneys who participated in some correspondence related to the arbitration. PDVSA did not actively participate in the arbitration and did not appoint an arbitrator.

14. The sole Arbitrator conducted the Arbitration pursuant to Clause 46(b) of the Charter.

15. The Arbitrator provided PDVSA ample and sufficient opportunity to participate in the arbitration proceedings. See Kraljevic Decl., Exhibit “D.”

16. On April 14, 2023, the Arbitrator awarded Petitioner UML:

- a. $2,018,592.57 for sums due under the Charter which have not been paid;
- b. $286,107.06 for interest on other payments made late;
- c. $467,300.22 for interest on the unpaid sums to the date of the award.
- d. The total principal sum payable by PDVSA to the Petitioner amounts to $2,771,999.85.
- e. In addition, the Arbitrator ordered that PDVSA must pay the costs of the arbitration reference, including the Tribunal's fees. To the extent that the Petitioner funded these fees on an interim basis, PDVSA must reimburse the excess, together with interest thereon at 5% per annum, compounded every 3 months, from the date of payment until the date of reimbursement.

See Kraljevic Decl., Exhibit “A,” at paragraphs 40-42.

17. On May 31, 2023, after submissions, the Arbitrator amended the First Partial Award, and issued an Addendum to the First Partial Award, which awarded post-judgment interest:

I therefore now correct paragraph 41 of the First Partial Award, which should read as follows: "That gives a total payable by PDVSA to the Owners of US $2,777,991.85, together with interests thereon at 5% per annum, compounded every three months, from the date of this Award until the date of payment.

See Kraljevic Decl., Exhibit “B” at paragraph 9.

18. Pursuant to English law, the arbitration awards, including interest and costs, are binding on the parties.

19. Both the United Kingdom and the United States are signatories to the New York Convention, which provides that a court sitting in any signatory country nation shall recognize and enforce a foreign arbitral award where (a) certified copies of both agreement to arbitrate and the arbitral award are submitted to the court; (b) the application is timely filed; and (c) none of the enumerated defenses to recognition and enforcement are present.

20. None of the enumerated defenses to recognition and enforcement listed in Article V of the New York Convention applies.

21. The Award, as amended by the Addendum to the First Partial Award, has not been set aside or suspended by a competent authority of the United Kingdom, the country in which, and under the law of which, the Award was made.

22. Pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 207, Petitioner brought this action within three (3) years after the Award was made on April 14, 2023, as amended by the Addendum to the First Partial Award dated May 31, 2023.

23. Under the New York Convention, no ground exists for this Court to refuse confirmation and recognition of the First Partial Award and Addendum to the First Partial Award.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

24. UML repeats and realleges all the foregoing paragraphs of this petition with the same force and effect as if set forth herein at length.

25. By reason of the foregoing and pursuant to the New York Convention, UML respectfully requests that the Court recognize, confirm and enforce the valid First Partial Award and the Addendum to the First Partial Award against PDVSA, and issue a judgment against PDVSA for the full amount of the First Partial Award, plus interests and costs, as set forth in paragraph 16 herein and in the Addendum to the First Partial Award as set forth in paragraph 17 herein.

WHEREFORE, Petitioner respectfully requests that this Court enter an Order and Judgment, pursuant to 9 U.S.C. § 207:

(a) confirming and recognizing the First Partial Award and Addendum to the First Partial Award,

(b) entering judgment in favor of Petitioner and against Respondents in the amount of the First Partial Award, with the interest and costs as provided therein, plus the costs of this proceeding and post-judgment interest at the rates provided for in the Addendum to the First Partial Award, and

(c) awarding Petitioner such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.
